

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

* The Long Vacation will in future begin on August 1 and end on October 12. The new order authorising this had not been issued at the time of going to press.

IMPORTANT NOTICE.

In consequence of the necessity for curtailing the dimensions of the Law List only the following appointments will in future be inserted, all others being excluded.

In the case of Solicitors having more than one place of business, such appointments as are of a local character only appear at the place to which, according to the particulars given, they relate. Addresses are not inserted unless they are actual places of business at which offices are permanently maintained.

The Certificates of Solicitors, &c., expire on the 15th November, and if renewed before the 16th December are dated the 16th November.

All other Certificates are to be applied for at the Inland Revenue Office.

The names of all persons who obtained their Certificates for the current year on or before the 1st January last appear in this List.

By the 23 & 24 Vict. c. 127, s. 22, it is enacted as follows:—

“Any list of Attorneys, Solicitors, and Conveyancers
 “purporting to be published by the authority of the Com“missioners of Inland Revenue, and to contain the names
 “of Attorneys, Solicitors, and Conveyancers who have ob“tained Stamped Certificates for the current year on or “before the first day of January in the same year, shall,
 “until the contrary be made to appear, be evidence in all
 “Courts, and before all Justices of the Peace and others,
 “that the persons named therein as Attorneys, Solicitors,
 “or Conveyancers holding such certificates as aforesaid for
 “the current year, are Attorneys, Solicitors, or Convey“ancers holding such Certificates; and the absence of the “name of any person from such list, shall, until the “contrary be made to appear, be evidence as aforesaid,
 “that such person is not qualified to practise as an “Attorney, Solicitor, or Conveyancer, under a Certificate
 “for the current year; but in the case of any person being

“an Attorney or Solicitor whose name does not appear in “such list, an extract from the Roll of Attorneys and Soli“citors kept by the Registrar certified under the hand of
“the Secretary of The Law Society (while such Society “performs the duties of Registrar), or of the Registrar for

A LIST OF PUBLIC NOTARIES PRACTISING IN ENGLAND AND WALES (EXCEPT LONDON).

Distinguishing those whose faculties enable them to practise within a certain district only, or are otherwise limited.

For London Notaries, see separate list, ante, p. 1544.

A General Faculty denotes authority to practise in all places except London.

A General District Faculty confines its holder to a particular district, usually a circuit of 10 miles from his place of residence, but in some cases more, in others less.

When the words Dep. Reg., &c., appear, they denote that the Deputy Registrar or otherwise (unless possessing a more extended faculty) can only act as a Notary in performing the duties of the office named.

COUNTRY WORK BY RETURN OF POST

Extract from the "Law Times," March 27th, 1875.

* "The Stationer's Shop (one of the very old Elizabethan buildings now remaining in London) was for about 190 years, up till 1840, the Old Poor House in Middle Temple Lane. Most of the great lawyers in the past 200 years have trodden its well-worn boards, as many of the principal ones in both branches of the profession do at the present time, and the books of the Old House bear record of many great Acts of State. Many of the most important Acts of Parliament, notably the Slave Trade Acts, were copied in the office, as also at times other most important State Documents. Lord Brougham, in the days before he became a Peer and Lord Chancellor, was a frequent visitor." &c., &c.
